HAWLEY BROKE 10 MILE RECORD.

Driving the E. R. Thomas 90 h. p. Mercedes, Hawley covers the 10 Miles in 6:31.4-5 Seconds.
Previous Record was 6:50

NO RACES WERE RUN IN THE AFTERNOON

The races yesterday morning were started at the Club House and ran south, that being the best part of the beach. The day was much warmer and a larger number of people were out to see the races.

The first race was event No. 12, between Wm. Wallace, in his 90 h. p. F. I. A. T. and Paul Sartori, driving Alfred G. Vanderbilt's 90 h. p. F. I. A. T. Wallace won easily in 6:51.2-5, Sartori being badly beaten. Last year, Vanderbilt drove his machine ten miles in 6:50.

The second race was event No. 11, ten miles for Mercedes cars only, in which H. M. Shandle's 90 h. p. car, driven by Frederick's, Jas. L. Breece in a 35 h. p. S. B. Stevens in a 40 h. p. car, and E. R. Thomas, 90 h. p. car, competed.

The Thomas car, driven by Ed. Hawley, covered the 10 miles in 6:31.4-5, breaking the world's record made last year by a 600 flat, by W. K. Vanderbilt in a 90 h. p. Mercedes.

Shandle finished second, in 7:41.4-5, Breece third. Stevens broke down and did not finish.

The third race, the Ormond Derby for the Big C. J. S. Miller trophy, ran in three heats, the first being between Arthur E. MacDonald in his 90 h. p. Napier, Jos. H. Heller in his 90 h. p. Pipe, and M. G. Bernia in W. G. Breece's 90 h. p. Renault. MacDonald finished first in 7:06, the Pipe second, 7:10.2-5 and the Renault third in 7:58. The second heat was between E. R. Thomas' 90 h. p. Daimler and H. M. Shandle's 90 h. p. Daimler, which proved of little interest, as the cars finished so far apart.

The Thomas car finished in 7:10.

Shandle's time being 10:29.4-5. The third heat was between Jas. L. Breece's 35 h. p. Daimler and Wm. Wallace's 90 h. p. F. I. A. T. In this heat Wallace did not finish.

The Daimler finished in 10:29.2-5. This ended the races for the morning, the beach being so wet and soft that fast time could be made only at much risk to the drivers.

Weather permitting, the automobile parade will no doubt attract a large crowd of sightseers to witness this interesting event.

The auto will assemble at Hotel Ormond at 10:30 this morning and drive down the beach to this city, visiting the Club House, where pictures will be taken, then passing Ridgewood avenue and continuing via the river road to Ormond. All car owners are requested to participate.

*Experienced Hotel Diplomat, Welby, white man or woman preferred. Call on Mr. Kirby at the Trav. Bureau.

The pocket book containing a B. R. ticket marked Martha J. Bernia, which was advertised in yesterday morning's issue, has been found and returned to the owner. A quick result for a small advertisement! The Daily News reaches most of the people and advertising in it brings prompt results.

CONFERENCE.

At 9 o'clock Friday morning the Bishop took the chair and took up the entire business of the conference. Reports from the pastors of Episcopial district were continued. All show a good work done during the year and have a hopeful future.

Dr. L. S. Butler then reported the Jacksonville district and the pastors followed in more detailed reports. This district is stretched along the coast from Jacksonville to Miami and has much in social and religious conditions which the pastors and people are working that is different from the other parts of the state, but the church at each place is keeping up with the demands, and the church is making rapid progress along all lines.

For this success so little amount of credit is due to the many loyal and true Methodists who send the visitors in Florida but have homes in the North. Rev. Dr. Hamilton of Kinsey, Ala., was introduced and told of his work in the ministry there, of which he is proud. He asked the conference to give a scholarship in that school for boys, and in a few minutes $120 was given to hold this scholarship for the St. Johns River Conference, the interest on which will pay for the schooling of a girl. A great deal of enthusiasm was aroused in this effort to secure money for this school which is struggling hard to get on its feet.

The afternoon was given up to evangelistic services, with an excellent sermon by Rev. G. E. Farrar, of Winter Park. A special attraction in all these services is the singing by Evangelist Harris and his wife. The Bishop also delights every one in the singing of soul stirring songs, sung as only he himself can sing them.

By W. P. Thirkfield, of Cincinnati, told the audience last night in his intensely interesting subject: "Anglo-Saxon Civilization and the World for Christ."

The program for yesterday was conference business from 9 to 11:45 a. m., sermon at 2:30 p. m. by Rev. Aldwyn Smith, of DeLand. At night the Epworth League anniversary held with an address by some one who was not named in the announcements.

Dr. F. M. Kresper, of Jacksonville, was excused from further attendance on conference and returned home Friday afternoon in order that he might be in the great revival now being held there under the leadership of Dr. J. H. Marshall, an evangelist of national fame.

The program for Sunday services is as follows:

At the First M. E. Church, preaching by Rev. H. S. White at 11 a. m. Evangelistic services conducted at 7 p. m. by Miss Cartright, an evangelist of note from Cincinnati, O.

At the First Baptist Church at 11 a. m., sermon by Rev. G. Henry Martin; at 7 p. m., G. E. Farrar. At Kingston M. E. Church, 11 a. m., sermon by Rev. H. L. Townsend; at 7 p. m., Rev. H. G. Porter. These appointments are subject to possible change, but not so as to disappoint any who may attend any of the services, as equally good ones might be substituted will be "sent."

It is possible that the appointments will be read by the Bishop tonight after the service in Seabreeze avenue church.

Commencing tomorrow, Monday, The Daily News will again be issued as an afternoon paper. Forms will go to press at 2:30 and papers will be delivered about 5 o'clock.

Notice to Automobileists.

It is desired to take a panoramic photograph of an automobile parade on the Ormond Daytona Beach, Sunday morning at 10:30. Every owner of a car, including racing cars, is invited to take a place in the group for the photograph and in the Beach Parade, the route of which will be down the beach from Ormond to Daytona and the Club House, where another picture will be taken; thence to Daytona, up Ridgewood Avenue and back by the River Road to Ormond.

Daytona automobileists will escort the parade from Ormond to Daytona.

Car owners will please fill their cars with passengers and the general public is invited to witness the parade.

Mrs. J. M. Jones returned yesterday from Tampa where she had been visiting friends for several days.

The boxing contest scheduled to come off at Williams Hall Friday night between K. Williams and Prof. Elkes, was not pulled off owing to the slimness of the crowd.

Judge Jones has handed down a decision in the case of the contemplated incorporation of a part of Goddard with Seabreeze. The decision was adverse to the town of Seabreeze.

The Colonades have a great many more guests this year than at the same date last year. The restaurant presents a very lively appearance at night through with the many people stopping there.

Dr. Rev. C. C. McCabe and wife, of Philadelphia, are guests at the Seaside. Bishop McCabe is a prominent dignitary of the Methodist Church who is attending the Conference.

Quite a number of the races were speeding on the beach Saturday afternoon though no races were actually run. The crowd present were much disappointed because no events were pulled off.

Race Program in Detail.

Following is the program for Monday.

NEW EVERY MORNING

By Susan Coolidge

EVERY day is a fresh beginning.
Every sunrise is a new world.
You win as every of sorrow and smiling.
Here is a beautiful new day for you.
A hope for me and a hope for you.

All the good things are past and over.
The tasks are done and the hours are shed.
Yesterday's errors but yesterday's cover.
Yesterday's wounds which scarred and bled
Are healed with the healing which night has shed.

Yesterday now is part of forever.
Round up in a sheet which tied today tight.
With glad days and sad days and bad days, which never
Shall visit us more with their gloom and their light.
Their failures of sunshine or sorrowful night.

Let them go, since we cannot recall them.
Cannot undo and cannot atone.
God in the mercy receive, forgive them.
Only the new days are our own.
Today is ours and today alone.

Here are the skies, all hushed in twilight;
Here is the quiet earth all returned.
Here are the first stars, sparkling lightly
To face the sun and share with the stars
In the charm of dew and the cool of dawn.

Every day is a fresh beginning;
Listen, my soul, to the glad refrain,
And quietude forecast and promise join,
Take heart with the day and begin again!

M. E. Conference.

At 9 o'clock Friday morning the Bishop took the chair and took up the routine business of the conference. Reports from the pastors of Eustis district were continued. All show a good work done during the year and have a hopeful future.

Dr. L. S. Rader then reported the Jacksonville district and the pastors followed in more detailed reports. This district is stretched along the coast from Jacksonville to Miami and has much in social and religious conditions which the pastors and people are meeting that is different from the other parts of the State, but the church at each place is keeping pace with the demands, and the church is making rapid progress along all lines. For this success no little amount of credit is due to the many loyal and true Methodists who spend the winters in Florida but have homes in the North. Rev. Dr. Handin, of Kinsey, Ala., was introduced and told of his work in the seminary there, of which he is president. He asked the conference to buy a scholarship in that school for girls, and in a few minutes $170 was given to hold this scholarship for the St. Johns River Conference, the interest on which will pay for the schooling of a girl. A great deal of enthusiasm was aroused in this effort to secure money for this school which is struggling hard to afford opportunity for the education of the poor whites in Alabama. The president and his wife are old people, who are doing a heroic work at great sacrifice.

The afternoon was given up to evangelistic services, with an excellent sermon by Rev. G. E. Farrar, of Winter Park. A special attraction at all these services is the singing by Evangelist Harris and his wife. The Bishop also delights every one in the singing of soul stirring songs, sung as only he himself can sing them.

Dr. F. M. Kemper, of Jacksonville, was excused from further attendance on conference and returned home Friday afternoon in order that he might be in the great revival now being held there under the leadership of Dr. Munnhall, an evangelist of national fame.

The program for Sunday services is as follows:

At the First M. E. Church, preaching by Rev. H. S. White at 11 a. m. Evangelistic services conducted at 7 p. m. by Miss Cartright, an evangelist of note from Cincinnati, O.

The subscription list to aid the family of Raoul, the chauffeur killed in the Croker accident, received quite an impetus today when Alexander G. Fisk, of Boston, handed a record representative a check for $100, made out to the order of H. L. Bowdler, who has charge of the fund. This is the largest contribution yet made and it is expected that in the neighborhood of $100 will be raised for the afflicted family. St. Augustine Record.

That Stiles' Matter.

Mayor's Office, Daytona, Fla.,
Jan. 28, 1905.

Mr. Editor:

Some considerable discussion has ensued regarding a failure of the City Council to grant a permit to L. R. Stiles to build a wharf in front of his property and he has also elicited a long letter to the public, scoring the City Council and other officials for failure to grant his request and making plain his idea that he can build without such permit and only asks it as a matter of courtesy to the City authorities.

If the City has any right to pass ordinances his position is plainly in error, and I would call the attention of all who have a desire to build over the water on the river front to Ordinance 181 to 186 inclusive.

C. L. SMITH,
Mayor.

The Misuse of "quite."

"Quite" strictly means "completely" and is rightly used in such sentences as "The flower is quite faded." Its secondary meaning, "very," to a great extent, has the authority of good writers, though such expressions as "quite young" and "quite hot" have a colloquial ring about them. There is, however, something up of late the slovenly practice of employing the adverb "quite" with a noun, as "quite a panic ensued." If an adverb can modify a noun, where is the distinction between adverb and adjective? As a matter of fact, the functions of the adverb seem to be encroaching on those of the adjective. London Review.

Spain's Orange Groves.

The Spanish orange region extends over eastern and southern Catalonia, Valencia, Almeria, Murcia, Malaga and Seville, and in parts of Valencia and Murcia the trees now grow in forests, the soil of the famous Valencian "huerta," lavishly irrigated with aqueducts, being the richest in Europe. Here a single full grown tree will yield 1,500 and at times as many as 1,800 oranges in a season, fruit bearing beginning when the trees reach their sixth year and increasing until they are twenty, when degeneration usually sets in.

Wedding Anniversaries.

According to the tradition of ages, there are fourteen wedding anniversaries to be celebrated. These are: First year, cotton; second year, paper; third year, leather; fifth year, wooden; seventh year, woolen; tenth year, tin; twelfth year, silk and fine linen; fifteenth year, crystal; twentieth year, china; twenty-fifth year, silver; thirtieth year, pearl; fortieth year, ruby; fiftieth year, golden; seventy-fifth year, diamond.
